- 1.1 These General Terms and Conditions apply to and form an integral part of all Offers to Customer, all orders of Customer to Philips, all Confirmations by Philips, and any Agreement, all as relating to the performance of Services by Philips to Customer.
- 1.2 These General Terms and Conditions are not applicable to the secondment of employees by Philips to Customer or any other third parties.
- 1.3 These General Terms and Conditions together with the relevant Offer issued by Philips set forth the terms under which Philips offers to perform the Services and/or deliver the Deliverables to Customer. When Customer accepts Philips’ Offer, either by acknowledgment, or acceptance of any Services and/or Deliverables, a binding agreement shall be formed. Such Agreement is limited to these General Terms and Conditions as provided by Philips. Philips does not agree to any proposed amendment, alteration or addition by Customer. The Agreement can be varied only in writing signed by Philips. Any other statement or writing of Customer shall not alter, add to, or otherwise affect the Agreement.
- 1.4 Philips is not bound by and hereby expressly rejects Customer’s general conditions and any additional or different terms or provisions that may appear on any document used by Customer. Course of performance, course of dealing and usage of trade shall not be applied to modify these General Terms and Conditions.
- 1.5 Offers are open for acceptance within the period stated by Philips in the Offer or, when no period is stated, within thirty (30) business days from the date of the Offer, but any Offer may be withdrawn or revoked by Philips at any time prior to the receipt by Philips of Customer’s acceptance related thereto.

2. Prices, Invoicing and Payment

- 2.1 All prices in any Agreement (a) are in Euros or in the currency set forth in any Agreement, (b) do not include any applicable Taxes now or hereafter enacted and (c) are based on delivery "Ex-works" (Incoterms 2010). Philips will add Taxes to the price where Philips is required by law to pay or collect them and will be paid by Customer together with the price.
- 2.2 Customer will pay Philips the price, as specified in the Agreement, plus all specific additional costs and expenses.
- 2.3 With respect to the Services, Philips will invoice Customer for the hours spent at the prior agreed upon hourly rate (subject to revision at least once a year), as specified in the Agreement, as well as for materials and related expenses.
- 2.4 Invoices shall be submitted on a monthly basis, unless otherwise agreed in the Agreement.
- 2.5 Customer will pay all invoices in accordance with the Agreement or, if not specified, within thirty (30) calendar days as from the date on the invoice. All payments shall be made to the designated Philips’ account. If deliveries are made in installments, each installment may be separately invoiced and shall be paid for when due.
- 2.6 If Customer does not pay the amount due within the stipulated term, Customer will be automatically, without Philips notification being required, in default, and will owe interest over the outstanding balance payable on a monthly basis from the due date until payment in full at the official rate of interest set by the Dutch government from time to time. Furthermore, Customer agrees to pay any costs, fees and expenses incurred by Philips in connection with the collection of the debt together with the applicable interest.
- 2.7 If, in Philips’ judgment, Customer’s financial condition at any time does not justify performance of the Services on the agreed payment terms, Philips may require full or partial payment in advance or other payment terms. If Parties fail to reach agreement on new payment terms, Philips may suspend or, delay its performance until agreement has been reached.

- 2.8 In the event of any default by Customer in the payment of any fees, prices or costs due, or any other default by Customer, Philips is entitled to refuse the performance of the Services immediately and Philips may suspend, delay or cancel any credit, performance of the Services by Philips, until such payments are brought current or such other defaults are remedied. Such right shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights and remedies available under the Agreement or at law or in equity.
- 2.9 Customer shall not withhold or reduce any payment due by Customer to Philips. Customer hereby waives any and all rights to offset existing and future claims against any payment due under the Agreement or under any other agreement with Philips and agrees to pay the amounts under the Agreement regardless of any claimed offset which may be asserted by Customer or on its behalf.

3. Title and Retention of Title

- 3.1 Except for Philips Intellectual Property, which shall remain Philips and/or its Affiliates property at all times, Customer explicitly accepts that Philips shall retain title to the Deliverables until full payment has been received by Philips of all amounts due in accordance with the Agreement between Customer and Philips under which the Deliverables are delivered to Customer and Customer agrees not to resell the Deliverables and shall take all measures to protect the Deliverables and to ensure that Philips title to the Deliverables is in no way prejudiced. Risk of damage, loss or destruction of the Deliverables shall pass to Customer upon the delivery of the Deliverables to Customer in accordance with the Ex-works delivery condition. Customer shall insure the Deliverables at its own expense for the time they remain Philips property. If Customer fails to make any payments to Philips when due, Customer shall, upon Philips first notice, return to Philips, at Customer’s risk and expense, any Deliverables to which Philips has retained title as aforesaid.

4. Delivery and Acceptance

- 4.1 Timely delivery. (a) Philips shall use its Efforts to meet the Delivery Date set forth in the Agreement. Should Philips anticipate at any time its impossibility to achieve Efforts to meet the Delivery Date, Philips shall promptly notify the Customer by written notice. Such written notice shall contain the current state of the Services and/or Deliverables, the reasons for the foreseeable delay and the new reasonable period of time, to be agreed with Customer, with a minimum of thirty (30) business days, within which Philips shall use such Efforts to perform the Services and/or supply the Deliverables (“New Delivery Date”). If in spite of Philips using its Efforts, the New Delivery Date is not met, Customer may terminate the part of the Services not performed and/or Deliverables not supplied on the New Delivery Date. With respect to the breach of its delivery obligations, the foregoing states Customer’s sole and exclusive remedy and, provided Philips complies with this Clause, Philips shall not be bound by any further obligation nor be liable for any damage.
(b) in case any or all of the conditions under Clause 5 are not, properly or not timely complied with by Customer, or if Philips has to suspend Services for reasons not attributable to gross negligence or wilful misconduct of Philips, the Delivery Date set forth in the Agreement shall be automatically extended for such additional time as shall be necessary to deliver the Services, and any and all additional costs resulting thereof shall be for Customer’s account.
- 4.2 Acceptance procedure. In case any specific acceptance procedure in the Agreement has been agreed for the Deliverables, Customer agrees to execute such acceptance procedure with respect to such relevant Deliverables within the period agreed. In case no specific acceptance procedure in the Agreement has been agreed for the Deliverables, such Deliverables will be deemed accepted on the Delivery Date unless rejected in writing within a period of ten (10) business days after delivery. Should acceptance be rejected for nonconformity of the Deliverables with the agreed acceptance criteria, Philips shall use its Efforts to correct the part of the Services not conforming to the acceptance criteria, within a reasonable period of time to be agreed with Customer, with a minimum of thirty (30) business days. The obligations of Philips described above are Philips's only obligations and Customer's sole and exclusive remedy for non-conformities of the Deliverables.

5. Co-operation and responsibility of Customer

5.1 The Agreement and the description of the Services are based on information provided by Customer.
